

Ecosexual Vows to Gaia at Lolita Place, November 5, 2017

As followers of natural love: we recognize the divine essence of every human being. As participants in Ecosexual Love, we extend this essence to all existence.

We connect our inner landscape and its multicolored chakras with the natural elements, the forces of nature that surround us.

We declare our love for the seas, the waves, the rivers, the mountains, the volcanoes, the skies, the Moon, the Sun, the plants, the animals the microbes that make us and other humans alive.

We are aware of the power of the intersectional arts of loving beyond genders, numbers, ages, orientations, races, origins, species and biological realms, and are prepared to embrace all of life as a partner with equal rights.

We declare our love to you, Lolita Place, nurse, doctor, lover, beautiful amorous partner and part of Gaia.

We declare our love for you, Gaia, host/ess, parent, mother, lover who offers compassion to our love.

We recognize ourselves and each other as metamours willing to share this lover; and we acknowledge you, Gaia, as the gracious host/ess of all the loves that ever were and ever will be, including ours.

We acknowledge ourselves to be part of you, Gaia.

And we vow to protect, honor and respect you. We recognize the magic of Gaia in us; and we revere it in our Ecosexual Love and its values.

We declare our Ecosexual devotion to you, Lolita, and to you, Gaia.

Dr. SerenaGaia and co-editors